Joyce Fowler

Joyce Fowler retired a couple of years ago after over 36 years of professional employment in Columbus. Positions she has held included Director of Volunteer Services at DFACS, Director of Personnel and VP of Affiliate Relations at Synovus, and Director of the CSU Career Center.

Joyce has taught classes to company managers and supervisors on all areas of leadership and human resource topics. On the college level, she provided classroom instruction in psychology, sociology, and public speaking, as well as hundreds of hours on job search, goal setting, and leadership topics. This also afforded her the opportunity to provide related programs through community outreach. Almost all of her work life has been in a position of problem-solving with a diversity of individuals and audiences which afforded her an opportunity to learn many life lessons.

One of her current activities is working on a post retirement goal of acquiring Master Gardener status. There is a lot we can learn about life from nature.

Turning 50!!!!

I have been dreading this day for a few years but it came on October 6th and to my surprise it was a great day! My friends decorated my office space with skeletons, denture cleanser, signs, and many other items I will not mention. Everyone in the office wore black to participate in my mourning. We had great food and cake and everyone enjoyed making jokes about my "old age". It was a wonderful day! I am so blessed to have a great family and wonderful friends that would take the time to make my day special. As a friend described turning 50...it is a lot like a colonoscopy...the days leading up to it are much worse...And by the way, have scheduled one of those...another great thing about turning 50!!!!

Here are few quotes I thought you would enjoy:

"Looking fifty is great if you're sixty." Joan Rivers

"Forty is the old age of youth: fifty is the youth of old age." Unknown

"If I knew I was going to live this long, I'd have taken better care of myself." Mickey Mantle

"Aging seems to be the only available way to live a long life." Daniel Francois Esprit Auber

"I'm not 50, I'm 49.95, plus tax!" Unknown

"The man who views the world at fifty the same as he did at twenty has wasted thirty years of his life" Muhammad Ali

"Middle age is when your age starts to show around your middle." Bob Hope

"They say that age is all in your mind. The trick is keeping it from creeping down into your body" Unknown

Here is a birthday wish I received.... Happy 20th Anniversary of your 30th Birthday!!!

Thanks to everyone for the birthday wishes!!

TAP Update

Donna Morgan, Dee Langford, and Wanda Johnson attended our organization's first faculty meeting with the staff of The Teenage Parenting Center. We were introduced to the faculty by Principal Pat Turner. We learned a few things at this meeting, but I think what resonates most in our minds is the huge attendance problem that occurs at the school. Approximately 25% of their students had been absent on the Monday prior to the meeting. Any ideas on how we might be able to help them improve in this area are deeply appreciated.

Wanda and Dee had previously asked that the faculty members participate in a needs assessment and from that assessment, create a "wish list" for us to present to the membership. The list was presented to us and we now present it to you for your consideration. We would also like to give a special thank you to six of our members who have volunteered to present a workplace and career preparation skills workshop to the TAP students on October 20, 2009 at 12:00PM. The six volunteers are Sommer Bundy, Michelle Justice, Cathy Phillips, Jean Richardson, Mary Stewart, and Nancy Williams.

The PIE Board is always looking for volunteers and additional Network Members to participate in being a Partner In Education. If you are interested in giving of time, money or ideas, please speak with Wanda Johnson or Dee Langford for more information and always thank you to Wanda and Dee for the tremendous amount of work they put into to making this program so successful .
